

Central Electric
Membership Corporation

A Touchstone Energy® Cooperative

Cameron selected to fill Board vacancy

The Central Electric Board of Directors has appointed Charles E. Cameron, Sr. to serve the unexpired term of Director Edith Cox, who recently passed away unexpectedly. Mr. Cameron will fill the Director seat that represents members in District 3, Harnett County.

Apostle/Bishop Cameron is currently Senior Pastor at Covenant Christian Church in Vass, as well as a professor and instructor at Grace Theological Seminary in Dillon, S.C. Mr. Cameron grew up in Western Harnett County where he attended Johnsonville High School. He furthered his education by attending N.C. A&T State University where he received his Bachelor's Degree in Social Work. He then attended Rutgers University in New Jersey, where he obtained a Master's Degree in Social Work Administration.

After completing his Master's degree, he returned to Durham, N.C. where he worked for the Lincoln Community Health Center as a Psychiatric Social Worker and later with the N.C. Department of Corrections serving adjudicated juvenile delinquents. After spending 10 years working with the training schools, he began serving with the Division of Services for the Blind where he worked for nearly 36 years until his retirement on April 1, 2011. He has served as a Social Worker for the Blind; a Program Planner/Evaluator; a Children's Consultant and an Area Social Services Supervisor. Mr. Cameron and his wife, Zandra, currently reside in the Johnsonville community.

"We are beyond excited to be adding Charles as a member of the co-op's Board of Directors," said Board President, Rebecca Cogan. "While we are certainly remembering Edith for her years of dedicated work on behalf of our membership and miss her dearly, we could not have found a better person to fill the void she left. Mr. Cameron will undoubtedly be a tremendous asset to the Board and the members of this cooperative."